Light straw-yellow hue; the bouquet smoky and toasted-nutty, with a lemon, honey and nougat palate. It has intense, lively and delicate flavour, which is also deep and bright and refreshing on the finish.

Richard Christian Danus and Marc Reid Rubel, ELO and Olivia Newton-John have a lot to do with my earworm right now. Good perfume of stone fruit, green apple, light flint and lime. Shows some similar characters to taste, quite compact, flinty almost to finish. Very good drinking experience here, refreshing and shows some complexity... nice.
